Article XIII: Anti-Hazing Clause

Students and Student organizations are prohibited from initiating, participating in, or being witnesses to hazing activity. Hazing is antithetical to the University's commitment to a positive educational environment. Participation in hazing activities is against the law. Violation of the University's hazing policy, whether on or off-campus, may subject participants, including students and organizations, to arrest, prosecution, and/or disciplinary action, including, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion of students and the revocation of an organization's registration and/or recognition at the University. Consent to or acquiescence in a hazing activity is not a defense. The University strictly prohibits participation in hazing activities by any party, regardless of the existence of consent. Hazing activities do not contribute to the positive development or welfare of students. The University of Houston recognizes the act of hazing as illegal, irresponsible, intolerable, and inconsistent with the principles of higher education and basic human development. For more information on the University's Hazing Policy please visit the Student Life Policies section of the University of Houston Student Handbook.

Article XIV: Inclusion Statement

Houston Panhellenic Council does not categorically deny membership to an individual based on race, color, religion, age, national origin, ancestry, sexual orientation, gender identity and expression, military or veteran status, the presence of a disability, genetic information, familial status, political affiliation or participation in protected activities (discrimination based on sex is allowed through Title IX of the Educational Amendments of 1972).

UH Non-Discrimination Clause: As a Registered Student Organization at the University of Houston we adhere to the University of Houston's Non-Discrimination Policy. The University of Houston is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity institution. The university provides equal treatment and opportunity to all persons without regard to race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, genetic information, disability, or veteran status except where such distinction is required by law. Additionally, the system prohibits discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation, gender identity, or gender expression.

Article XV: Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the Houston Panhellenic Council when applicable and when they are not inconsistent with the NPC Unanimous Agreements, these bylaws, and any special rules of order the Houston Panhellenic Council may adopt.

Article XVI: Amendment of Bylaws

These bylaws may be amended at any regular or special meetings of the Panhellenic Council Delegates by a two-thirds vote, provided the proposed amendment has been announced and submitted in writing at the previous regular meeting, allowing an opportunity for chapter input.

Article XVII: Dissolution

This Houston Panhellenic Council shall be dissolved when only one regular member exists at the University of Houston. In the event of the dissolution, none of the assets of the Council shall be distributed to any members of the Council, but after payment of all debts, its assets shall be given to NPC unless otherwise required by state law.
